

The size of the Versa Shield panel should be the same size as the existing window screen.

The existing window screen track system or the existing top mounted swivel channels should be used to mount the Versa Shield panel. Additional mounting clips are furnished to secure each panel at the window sill.

Insect screen is intimately attached to the inside of the protective membrane.